VOL. VII. NO. 119.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1901.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HERODIADE'S GOOD RACE.

W. H. May & Son's jockey, Winkfield, who is perhaps the best rider now at Worth got himself very much disliked by the crowd yesterday and was justly loudly hissed.

This ebony hued young man had the mount on Braw Lad in the fourth race, and so much superior was Jack Keene's sprinter to the ordinary lot opposed to him that the talent to a man fell over one another to bet on him at about 11 to 20. In fact Braw Lad seemed more like a 1 to 20 chance than anything else and should have won easily, but Winkfield fell into a trance at the sixteenth post and before he revived the wire was reached and Natural Gas' nose was in front. For an instant after the numbers were hung out the crowd stood dumfounded, then filled to overflowing with disgust they roundly hissed the careless jockey. It was certainly a rank piece of carelessness, but Judge McFarland let the boy off with a lecturing.

Ecume was the medium used by "Bud" May and his friends for making a killing. He had worked fast and was as fit as a fiddle and those "in the know" unloaded on him. Charley Ellison had the information and he went up and down the line betting each bookmaker as much as he would take. The blonde, sickly-looking plunger took any old price for his money and after the race wore a wiser look than Solomon.

Mr. G. C. Bennett's two-year-olds seem all to be good ones and Herodiade was compelled to display his best form to win the second race, and he did so. The youngster got away flying and on the far turn was "winging" out in front. At the three furlongs post, however, along came Johanna D. with a flying rush and colliding with Herodiade almost threw the latter over into the infield. This sharp interference was enough to beat almost any horse, but Mr. Bennett's youngster recovered himself quickly and eventually won by about a length.

A half dozen cheap, no account maidens made up the field in the first race, and John Drake at odds on, with Coburn up, won easily.

Mr. J. W. Schorr made his first visit to the track and was well pleased at the surroundings.

Jockey Baker was fined $25 for foul riding on Johanna D. in the second race.

Mr. Ed Bradley started joking "Bud" May about buying horses when going out to the track on the train, but the joke finally ended in a deal. Bradley is sweet on Red Hook and asked May to price the colt. "Bud" replied $1,800, and quicker than a wink Bradley snapped him up. May made good and from now on Red Hook will run in E. R. Bradley's colors.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is reported that the Blue Grass turfmen and breeders will petition the next Kentucky legislature to enact a law limiting racing on any track in that state to thirty days annually and to provide a state supervisory commission similar to that which controls racing in New York.

Jockey Boland, who has been riding in bad form owing to poor health, has gone to his home at Port Huron to rest up prior to the opening of the Toronto meeting, when he expects to be back in the saddle.

The auction sale of members' sheds will be held at the Washington Park Club House today at 4:00 o'clock p. m. Mr. Arthur Caton has consented to act as auctioneer. This in itself insures good bidding.

The stewards of the English Jockey Club have withheld the license of jockey J. H. Martin until June 4 in consequence of his reported foul riding sometime since at Cairo, Egypt.

R. C. M., Chicago. On eastern tracks all bets stand after the horses have gone to the post. Under this bet on Fennimore were lost.

Clarence H. Mackay has purchased of J. E. Madden the chestnut colt Gulden, 4, by Spendthrift—Tarantella, for $10,000.

At a recent race meeting at Vienna, Austria, Fred Talar rode three winners one day and two on the next.

Winner—Br. m. by Prince of Darkness—Inez.
Went to post at 4:54. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive of four. The winner was best and was well ridden. Lexall ran a good race, the best of his life, and finished very strong under a good ride. He was off badly and was coming at the end. Miss Patron ran to the mark. Silver Coin, away slowly and in a tangle, ran a good race. He might have won with a good ride. Eda Riley was allowed to fall out of it in the backstretch.
Overweights—Vedas, 3 pounds; C. P. Jones, 2; Tea Gown, 2.

Went to post at 5:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; next five driving. Irish Jewel was much the best and, ridden with good judgment, raced over the others at the end.
Command ran a much improved race and was just beaten by a faster horse. Percy R. is coming on and finished strongly. Samuel was weakly ridden and should have been closer up at the finish. Eight Bells' race was very bad. So was Hi Kollar's. Fred Hessig, Fridolin and W. J.
Baker performed poorly.
Scratched—24826 H. S. Tobacco, 112; 24958 Sue Johnson, 105.

Nothing more certain in a horse race than today's good things. Our track timer has seen all the horses entered do their best work for these races and reports that unless our two get left at the post they cannot lose. Yesterday our clients cashed on four winners. We advised them all to be played heavily. BETTORS who have tried all other sources without success come to us and WE KEEP THEM, because they know we are reliable and give the best information that money can buy. We don't give winners once in a while but every day.

BE HONEST

And I'll give you the best of INSIDE INFORMATION. I don't claim to know ALL the "good things" coming off, but ALL THAT I WIRE my clients are in condition to win—"they are trying"—and the stable has their bet down.
Don't expect a telegram every day, as, in justice to us both it is impossible to send them. I can guess as well as any one. Could guess and wire six races a day if necessary. BUT I'M NOT GUESSING for my clients. GENUINE STABLE INFORMATION. By my method you must win, or I can't make a cent. Instead of sending me money in advance I simply ask you to bet $2 for me on horses I wire you. I don't wire often, but they are of the right sort. My only demand is that you enclose 25 cents in your first letter to insure me against loss by refusal of telegram.

Winner—Br. g, by Deceiver—Devonia.
Went to post at 2:20. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driven out. This was about the worst lot of horses at the track. John Drake was much the best and never had to be fully extended. Winkfield rode a waiting race on Flaneur. He evidently was under the impression he could not beat John Drake and was bent on getting second place. Hanswurst seemed hopelessly out of it passing the half-mile post, but from that point on, closed a big gap. Dugan on Princess Strathmore did some rough riding on the first turn. His mount showed some speed, but it was not of the lasting kind. The same can be said of Little Pepper, who stopped suddenly on the backstretch. Sanford Hirsch would be more useful in a day.
John Drake, show, 1 to 8. Flaneur, show, 2 to 5. Hanswurst, show, 2 to 1. Little Pepper, show, out. The entry, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hanover—Druidess.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 7 minutes. Start poor. Won in a mild drive; the next three hard at it. Herodiade was much the best and had to be to win. He is a trifle erratic, but possesses more than ordinary quality. After getting a flying start and seeming to have everything his own way, he was overhauled and badly interfered with by Johanna D. The latter shied in on the far turn and came within an ace of throwing Herodiade over the fence. The latter stood this sharp interference gamely and through the stretch outlasted everything that challenged him. Miracle II. was away poorly, took the shortest route, was generally poorly handled and ran a good race. I. Samelson was kicked at the post. This is a big, handsome colt and can be marked for early action. The route was not far enough for Bert Sargent, who had a rough journey. After showing an extremely fast quarter, Johanna D. began to tire and at the end was staggering.
Overweights—Nimbledown, 1 pound.
Herodiade, show, 1 to 5. Miracle II., show, 6 to 5. I. Samelson, show, 3 to 2. Bert Sargent, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. h, by Inverness—Virgin.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Bengal. Won cleverly; next five under full sail. Ecome got a perfect ride and ran an extra good race. He got away none too well, but was fortunate in not being interfered with and in the stretch shot out of the bunch like a flash. Winkfield was a trifle over-confident at the end and Coburn, with Fireside, almost caught him napping. The latter was perhaps the best and should have won. She got away in a tangle, was bumped and jostled at every turn and never really had clear sailing until in the final furlong. Then, on the outside, she finished with a tremendous rush. Zaza was lucky and ran one of her best races. Hampshire skinned the rail on the stretch turn and was running great guns at the finish. He was pocketed all through the last quarter and had been able to get through, would have been a keen contender. Mark this fellow for early action. Andrattus showed speed, but stopped as if short. Emma C. L. did not run her race. Governor Sayres showed a lot of speed. Bengal was practically left.
Overweights—Bengal, 2 pounds; Governor Sayres, 3.
Ecome, show, 1 to 2. Fireside, show, evens. Zaza, show, 2 to 1. Emma C. L., show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by Lamplighter—Flyaway.
Went to post at 4:00. Off first break to a good start. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second easily; the next four were hard at it. Natural Gas' win was a fluke. She was hopelessly beaten at the sixteenth post, but at this point Winkfield on Braw Lad took a nap and tried to draw the finish line. Braw Lad has bad legs, and when Winkfield started to ease him he propped a bit, and before the boy could get him going again the wire was reached and Natural Gas' nose was in front. It was a rank piece of carelessness on Winkfield's part. He was on much the best horse and should have won with ease. Natural Gas is handled most inconsistently. Hop Scotch was right there at the end, as was Myra Morella, who will do better at a longer distance. Emma M. showed her usual amount of speed, then retired.
Scratched—24982 Patroon, 115; 24982 John Grigsby, 112; 25055 Gray Bill Higgins, 97.
Overweights—Aaron, 5 pounds; Natural Gas, 1; Myra Morella, 5.

Went to post at 4:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second driven out. Ohnet was the best and handled to the best of advantage. Dominick waited on Possart the first five furlongs and after that had everything his own way. Ohnet was in fine fettle and in the last furlong made Charley Moore look cheap. The latter made a strong bid on the far turn, but was plainly outclassed by Ohnet. Possart showed his ordinary quality and when challenged on the far turn he quit badly.
Overweights—Possart, 4 pounds.

Frank Fellows showed an unusual amount of speed. Flying Bird quit in the same old way. King's Pet and Prudent came stoutly at the finish. Bettie R. had plenty of early speed, died away in the stretch and was eased up. When Al Lone fell she was coming fast to her horses trying to get to the front. Mudder ran a bad race.

Went to post at 3:35. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; next three driving. Saguenay went to the front and had the speed of the party. Rare Perfume labored all the way and could not get to the leader. Banquo II. finished gamely and would have won had the race been a sixteenth of a mile farther. Calocan was jostled nearly all the way. Pine Chip ran an improving race.
Scratched—25065 Arrogant, 95; 25062 Old Phil, 92.

Winner—B. m, by Cedarwood—Red Girl.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Miss Redwood finished with a rush and stole a march on Passaic, who was worn out in setting the pace at a fast rate. Eous ran to his best form, but was tired out in chasing Passaic. ABE Furst finished strongly and was coming fast at the end. La Spara outran herself and Etholin did not run the mark. Touca was probably short. Outburst by no means ran his race, but got off badly.
Scratched—24995 B. G. Fox, 115; (24752) Governor Boyd, 112; 25064 Charley Daniels, 112; 24994 Birdie May, 110.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily after a sharp drive; second driving. It was a hard fight in the last eighth of a mile until near the finish between Tom Crabb and Hand Rail. Tom Crabb did his best and hung on stoutly. Dr. Worth ran his race. Hullbaloo broke two lengths behind her field and showed a marvelous burst of speed. She should have been third but her rider eased her up.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ben O'Fallon ran a good race and his performance was quite an improvement. Obstinate Simon also ran a good race and should be hard to beat from now on in the same company. Little Henry ran his race. Imperialist was rushed too much in the first six furlongs and was tired and staggering at the finish.

Winner—B. f, by Santiago—Crap Game.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Nonie was much the best and was going away like a shot in the last sixty yards. Lento ran a good race under a poor ride. Gypsy Boy showed the most early speed, but quit in the stretch. Shellmount is a good looking that made many long breakaways, yet ran well. Dan Collins was weakly ridden and a clever rider would probably have won on him.
